Personals

After nearly 40 years with the Church of Christ in Harrison, OH, Russell and Carolyn Lieb began ministry with the Mount Olive church in New Vienna, OH, in February. The Harrison church honored them with an open house and special tributes Jan. 19. The Liebs began ministry with the Harrison church July 21, 1963, working with the Whitewater Christian Evangelizing Fellowship to begin a New Testament church. The first service saw 68 in attendance, and during her peak years, the church averaged more than 400. Over the years, Mr. Lieb had more than 200 weddings, 350 funerals, nearly 1,000 baptisms, and witnessed nine members become ordained ministers.

Missions

The annual convention of Christian Mission South Haiti (CMSH) took place Aug. 6-9 in Les Cayes, Haiti, with more than 300 people attending. The theme was "What I Should Know." Speakers included Larry Weaver (North Carolina), Patrick Rhone (Florida), James Denie Jackson (Grand Cayman Island), and Jerome Prinnton (Port-au-Prince, Haiti). During the convention there were 11 baptisms, two weddings, five ordinations of deacons and ministers, and three rededications. CMSH is composed of nine churches, five schools, and an orphanage. It was reported that 89 people were baptized from August 2000 to August 2001. Jean Alix Lusma is director of the mission. Contact CMSH at P.O.
